Players can build anything they want with real-world objects inside the game. You can build a castle, a spaceship, or even an entire city. And although you have a very limited space to build in the game, that's not necessarily true of the game itself. Many players find that there are never enough resources to fit their plans for how they want to play Minecraft. While this can be great fun for creative or artistic players, it can be frustrating for others who just want more materials and better crafting recipes for building more things.",
